

Printed fabric backdrops can be produced for a variety of applications. From trade show booths to lobby displays and even media backdrops for that big red-carpet event. You'll be making the visual impact you desire that will effectively communicate your message.

FABRIC BACKDROPS

MEDIA BACKROPS

We produce high-quality printed Fabric Backdrops with or without pole pockets, table throws, step and repeat banners, banner x-stands and retractable banners. All come with custom finishing options, sewing and hemming. CGS Imaging's fabric banner products are extremely durable and custom made to fit your design specs.

Each banner is constructed to last and maintain its good looks through countless shows and washes. No worries with edge curls, scratches, creases, peals with a dye sublimated printed fabric backdrop. Our custom fabric banners are so durable you can throw them in a washing machine and are wrinkle resistant.

Promote your brand at all types of events!

STEP AND REPEAT

There's one common theme that all first-class award ceremonies, press conferences, movie premieres, corporate and social events share: they always feature Step and Repeat Banners. These clever and attractive assets allow for brand awareness strategies and backdrop designs to come together as one in a reliable and high-quality product without overtaking the main event backdrop.

Our custom Step and Repeat Banners give you the opportunity to have a long lasting, versatile and dynamic way of promoting your brand's logo and slogan for increased recognition. These professionally designed banners let you display your message in an affordable way!

TABLE THROWS

CGS Imaging offers customizable trade show and event Display Tablecloths. Choose from hundreds of colors or custom design your own Tablecloths with your company's branding. Custom printed table covers are perfect for events like tradeshows, exhibits, presentations and more. Anywhere there's a table, you can brand it with a beautiful full-color table cover featuring your logo, products and messaging.

Custom table covers are also one of the easiest-to-transport branding tools to send out with your brand ambassadors and field sales teams. We specialize in custom printed table covers and custom printed table runners with competitive pricing and industry leading product quality - featuring premium polyester knit fabrics for ultimate color pop, durability and feel. For exclusive events, promotions, trade shows and corporate gatherings, well crafted, uniquely designed table runners can be the difference between success and failure.
